FRIENDS

A PRIMER

PENNELL · CUSACK
MACLEOD · GATES

Nan

Blackie

Brownie

Jimmie Dale

King

Miss Hill

Beverly

Fred

Sally Ann

Jack

Jack Frost

Jane

big little go come run walk to from up down in out over under give take one two three

Ex libris universitatis albertaensis

CANADIAN CHILDREN'S OWN READERS

FRIENDS

A PRIMER

BY

MARY E. PENNELL, ALICE M. CUSACK

KATE G. MACLEOD, and CARYLL B. GATES

ILLUSTRATED BY MARGUERITE DAVIS

GINN AND COMPANY · TORONTO

COPYRIGHT, CANADA, BY GINN AND COMPANY
ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

PRINTED IN CANADA

G549.3

LIBRARY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA

Dedicated

to

Jimmie Dale and Beverly

2023462

A Note of Thanks

We wish to thank all the children and their teachers who have helped to make this book.

Mary E. Pennell

Alice M. Cusack

Kate G. Macleod

Caryll B. Gates

CP

Contents

	PAGE
Nan's Pet	9
Blackie	11
Playing in the Leaves	17
Find the Right Answer	23
A Little Brownie	24
A Pointing Game	28
The Brownie's Bells	29
Jimmie Dale's Pet	35
King	36
Find the Right Ending	39
King at School	40
Taking Care of Pets	45
Yes — No	49
Beverly's Doll	50
A Surprise for Beverly	56
Fred's Party	61
A Game	67
Mother's Surprise	71

PAGE

Fred's Surprise 74
Taking Care of a Bulb 76
Point to the Right Answer . . . 80
The Wind 81
A Finding Game 87
A Surprise at School 88
The Goldfish 93
A Picture Game 98
A Frolic 99
Fairy Pictures 105
A Baby Rabbit 110
Find the Right Picture 117
Feeding the Fish 118
Guessing Games 124
Vocabulary of "Friends" 127

Canadian Children's Own Readers

Friends

Nan's Pet

Here I am.
My name is Nan.
I have a doll.
I have a pet too.

This is my pet.
Her name is Blackie.
She has a black head.
She has a black tail.
She says, "Mew, mew."

Find my pet.

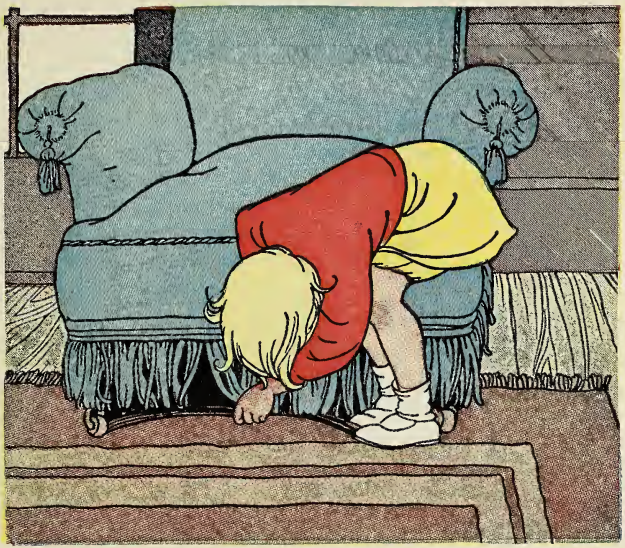
Blackie

Blackie likes to play.

She likes to play in the leaves.

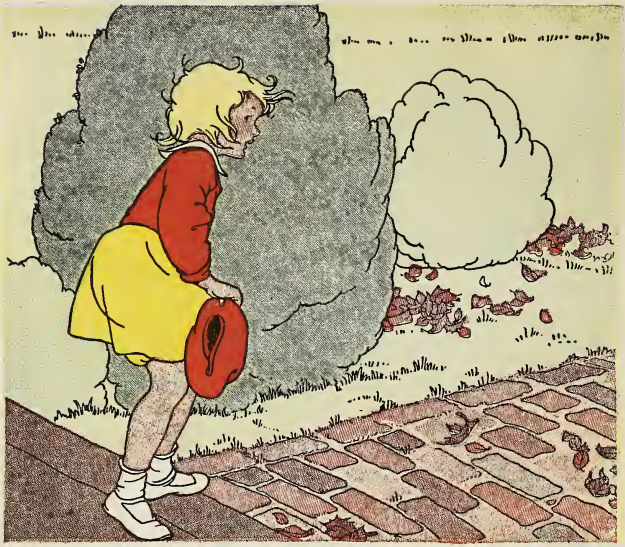
She likes to hide in the leaves.

One day Blackie was playing.
She was playing in the yard.
She was playing in the leaves.
She was hiding in the leaves.



Nan wanted Blackie.
She wanted to play with her.

She looked in the house.
She looked and looked.
She did not find Blackie.



Then Nan called.
She called, "Blackie! Blackie!
Where are you hiding?"

Blackie did not come.
She did not come to Nan.

Nan looked in the yard.
She looked and looked.
She did not find her pet.

Then Nan called.
She called, "Blackie! Blackie!
Where are you hiding?"

Blackie did not move.
She did not come to Nan.

Then Nan heard a noise.
She saw the leaves move.
Then she saw a black head.
Then she saw a black tail.

"Blackie! Blackie!" she called.
"I see where you are hiding.
You are hiding in the leaves."

Playing in the Leaves

Nan likes to play.
She likes to play in the yard.
She likes to play in the leaves.
She likes to hide in the leaves.
She likes to hide from Father.

One day Nan was playing.
She was playing in the yard.
She was jumping in the leaves.

Mother heard Father coming.
Mother said, "Nan! Nan!
Father is coming.
Hide from Father.
Hide in the leaves."

Nan hid from Father.
She hid in the leaves.

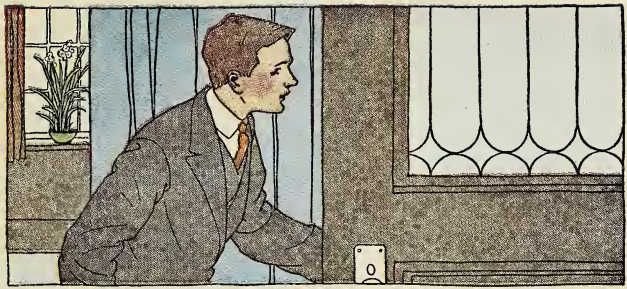
Then she heard Father call.
Father said, "Nan! Nan!
Where are you hiding?"

Nan was still.
She did not answer.

Father looked in the house.
He called, "Nan! Nan!
Where are you hiding?"

Nan called, "Here, here."

Mother said, "Sh, sh.
Do not make a noise.
Make Father find you."



Father heard Nan call.
He ran to the yard.
He looked around the yard.
He did not see Nan.

Then he called, "Nan! Nan!
Where are you hiding?"

Nan kept very still.
She did not answer.

Then Father heard a noise.
It was a little noise.

Then he saw the leaves move.
He ran to the leaves.
He said, "I have found you.
Here you are in the leaves."

Nan jumped up.
She jumped into Father's arms.

2

1

3

Find the Right Answer

Who hid in the leaves?

Who saw the leaves move?

Who said, "Sh, sh"?

Who kept very still?

A Little Brownie

Here I am.
I am a little Brownie.

I like to run.
I like to jump.
I like to hide.

I like to hide in the house.
I like to hide in shoes.
I like to hide in caps.

I like to hide in the yard.
I like to hide in the leaves.
I like to hide in nuts best.

I have a red coat.
I have little red shoes.
I have a pointed red cap.

I like my red coat.
I like my little red shoes.
I like my little red cap best.

My cap has little bells.
When I run the bells go tinkle, tinkle.
When I jump the bells go
tinkle, tinkle.

Have you heard my bells?

my pointed cap

little bells

a little Brownie

in nuts

A Pointing Game

1. I am _____.
2. I hide _____.
3. I like best _____.
4. My cap has _____.

The Brownie's Bells

One day the little Brownie was playing.
He was playing in the yard.
When the Brownie ran,
the bells went tinkle, tinkle.
When the Brownie jumped,
the bells went tinkle, tinkle.

Who heard the bells?

Nan heard the bells.
She heard the tinkle, tinkle
in the leaves.

She looked in the leaves.
She did not find the bells.
She almost found the Brownie.

The Brownie was hiding
in the leaves.
The Brownie saw Nan.
He saw her looking
in the leaves.
He jumped into a nut.

The Brownie kept very still.
The bells kept very still, too.
They did not go tinkle, tinkle.

Then Nan saw the nut.
She liked to eat nuts.

The Brownie was frightened.

Nan took up the nut.
The bells went tinkle, tinkle.

How frightened the Brownie was!
How surprised Nan was!

Nan looked at the nut.
She did not see the bells.
She looked in the leaves again.

Then the Brownie jumped.
He jumped from the nut.
He hid again from Nan.

Where did the Brownie hide?

Jimmie Dale's Pet

I am Jimmie Dale.
I have a pet.

My pet likes to run.
He likes to play.
His name is King.
He barks, "Bow-wow."

Find his picture.

King

One day King was playing.
He was playing with Jimmie Dale.

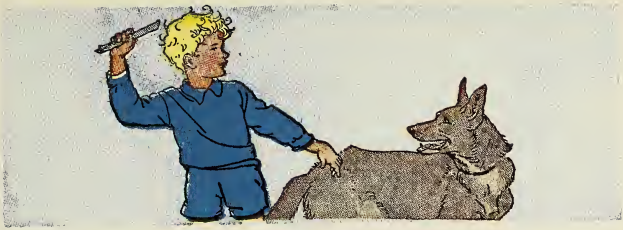
This is how they played.
Jimmie Dale threw a stick.
King ran to the stick.
He carried it to Jimmie Dale.
Then King barked and barked.



Jimmie Dale threw
the stick again.
The stick went into the leaves.

Away ran King.
He ran after the stick.
He jumped into the leaves.
He jumped on Blackie.

Blackie was hiding
in the leaves.

How frightened Blackie was!
How surprised King looked!

"Mew! Mew! Pst! Pst!"
said Blackie.
"Bow-wow! Bow-wow!"
said King.
Jimmie Dale laughed and laughed.

Father

bells

stick

King

nut coat

shoes

Find the Right Ending

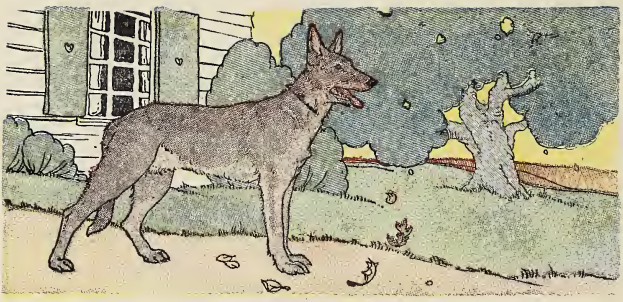
Jimmie Dale threw a _____.

The Brownie hid in a _____.

Nan hid from her _____.

Jimmie Dale's pet was_____.

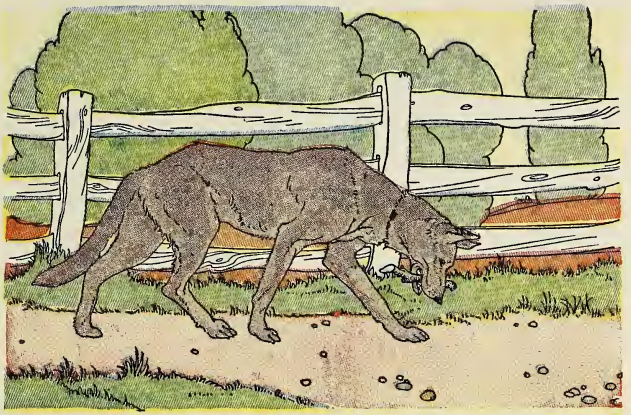
Tinkle, tinkle went the _____.



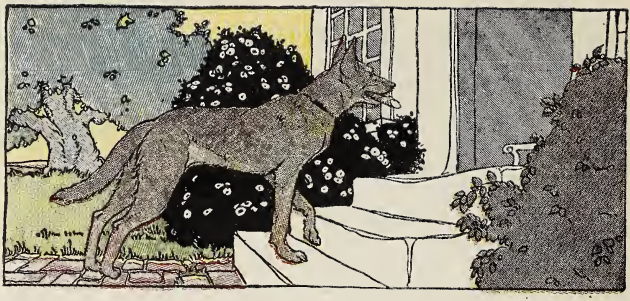
King at School

One day King wanted to play.
He wanted to play
with Jimmie Dale.
But Jimmie Dale was at school.
The school was down the street.

King found a stick.
He wanted to play with it.



He went sniff, sniff, sniff.
He went sniff, sniff, sniff
around the yard.
He went sniff, sniff, sniff
out of the yard.
He went sniff, sniff, sniff
down the street.
He went right to the school.



He went sniff, sniff, sniff
into the school.
He went right to Jimmie Dale with the stick.
He looked at him.
He barked and barked.

How surprised Jimmie Dale was!
How the children laughed!
How Miss Hill laughed!

Miss Hill said,

"What does King want?"

Jimmie Dale said,

"He wants to play with me."

Miss Hill said,

"How does he play with you?"

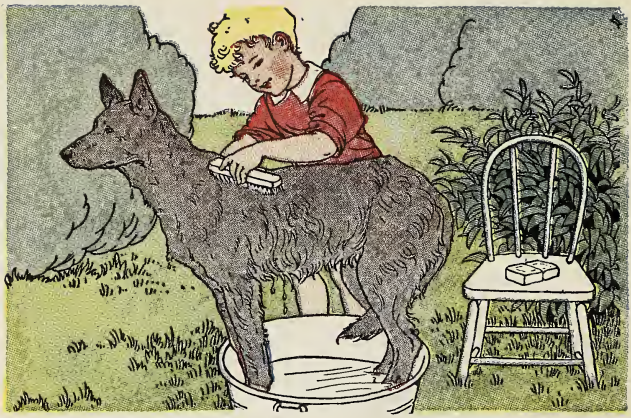
Jimmie Dale said,
"I throw a stick.
King runs after it.
He finds the stick.
He carries it to me.
Then he barks and barks.
He wants me to throw
the stick again."

The children said,
"Throw the stick now.
We want to see King play."

King played for the children.
He liked to play at school.

Taking Care of Pets

Miss Hill said,
"How do you take care
of King?
What does he eat?
Do you wash him?"



Jimmie Dale said,
"I give King water.
I give him a little meat.
I give him bread too.
He likes meat best.
I have him run and jump in the yard.
I wash him."

"Oh!" said Nan.
"I do not wash my cat."

"How do you take care of your pet?"
said Miss Hill.

"I have my cat run and play," said Nan.
"I give her water.
I give her milk and bread.
I give her a little meat.
I give her fish too.
She likes fish best."

"You are good to your cat,"
said Miss Hill.
"Jimmie Dale is good to King.
You take good care of your pets."

Yes No

Does a cat like milk?

Does a dog like bread best?

Does a dog like meat?

Do you wash a cat?

Do you give a dog water?

Do you wash a dog?

Does a cat like water best?

Do you have to wash a cat?

Beverly's Doll

Beverly could not find her doll.
She looked and looked for her.
She looked in the house.
She could not find her doll.

Then she ran to Mother.
She said,
"Mother, where is my doll?
I want to play with her.
Where is she?"

"Where have you looked for your doll?" said Mother.

Beverly said,
"I have looked in the house.
But I could not find her."

"Look in the yard," said Mother.
"You may find her there."

Beverly went into the yard.
She looked around the yard.
She could not find her doll.

Then she looked in the leaves.
She looked and looked.
She could not find her doll.

Then she looked in the dog house.
There was her doll.

The doll's head was off.
Her arms were off.
Her feet were off too.

"Oh, oh, oh!" said Beverly.

Mother heard Beverly crying.
Mother ran to the dog house.
There she found Beverly.

"Oh, Mother!" cried Beverly.
"See what King did!
Look at my doll!
Her head is off!
Her arms are off!
Her feet are off!
King is a bad, bad dog!"

"Do not cry, Beverly,"
said Mother.
"King was playing with your doll.
He is not a bad dog.
Come into the house with me.
I have a surprise for you."

Beverly stopped crying.
"What is the surprise?"
she asked.

"You will see," said Mother.

A Surprise for Beverly

Mother and Beverly went into the house.

Mother looked and looked.
Then she found something.
It was white.
It was a stocking.

"What is the stocking for?"
asked Beverly.

"It is for the surprise,"
said Mother.

Then Mother got something.
It was white.
She put it into the stocking.
Can you guess what it was?

"What are you making, Mother?" said Beverly.

"I am making the surprise,"
said Mother.

Then Mother got a string and two pencils.
One pencil was red.
One pencil was black.
She put the string around the stocking.
It made something that looked like a head.

Mother took the black pencil.
She made two black eyes.
She made a little nose.

Then she took the red pencil.
She made a red mouth.
It was a little mouth.
It was a laughing mouth.

"What are you making?"
asked Beverly.
"Is it a cat?"

"No, it is not a cat,"
said Mother.

Then Mother made two feet.
She put them on the stocking.

She made two arms.
She put them on the stocking.

"Now I know what it is,"
cried Beverly.
"It is a doll."

Fred's Party

One day Fred's mother said,
"Do you want a party, Fred?"

Fred jumped up and down.
"Oh, Mother! a party!" he said.
"What fun!
I want Nan to come.
I want Beverly to come.
I want Jimmie Dale."

"Yes," said Mother.
"Nan may come to the party.
Beverly may come to it.
Jimmie Dale may come too."

"What can I do for the party?"
asked Fred.

"You can make something for the party," said Mother.
"I will make something too.
You may help me to get ready for the party."

This is what Fred did to help.
He made a surprise for Nan.
He made a surprise for Beverly.
He made one for Jimmie Dale.

One surprise was red.
One surprise was yellow.
One surprise was green.

Guess what they were.

The surprises were dishes.
Fred made them of clay.
He made three clay dishes.

Then Fred ran to Mother.
He said,
"Mother, see my dishes!
Are they good dishes?"

"Yes," said Mother.
"They are good dishes."

"I want to paint them,"
said Fred.
"May I paint them now?"

"Oh, no!" said Mother.
"The clay must get hard.
Then you may paint the dishes."

Fred waited and waited.
At last the dishes were hard.
Then he painted them.

He painted one dish red.
He painted one dish yellow.
He painted one dish green.

He put something into each dish.

A Game

The day of the party came.
All was ready at Fred's house.

Nan came to the party first.
Then Jimmie Dale came.
At last Beverly came.

Then Fred said,
"I have a surprise for you."

"Oh, Fred!" cried the children.
"What is the surprise?"

"Wait and see," said Fred.
"Let's play games first."

They all went into the yard.
There was a big snowman.

The snowman had black eyes.
He had a big nose.
He had a big mouth.
He had a cap on his head.

"What a funny snowman!"
cried the children.
"See his big nose!"

"Let's make snowballs," said Fred.

"Let's throw them at the snowman," said Nan.
"See who can hit his cap."

The children made snowballs.
They threw them at the snowman.

Off went the snowman's cap.
Off went the snowman's nose.
Off went the snowman's head.

How the children laughed!

Mother's Surprise

Mother came to the door.
"Come, children," she called.
"Come into the house now."

The children stopped playing.
They went into the house.
They took off their caps.
They took off their coats.

"Now come to the table,"
said Mother.
"I have a surprise for you.
You will find it on the table."

The children went to the table.

"Look!" cried Beverly.
"I have a little snowman.
He is made of ice cream."

"I have a snowman too," cried Nan.
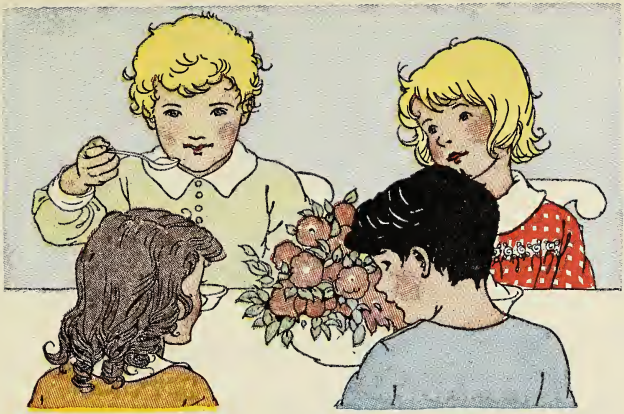
"He has two eyes.
He has a little nose."

"Oh, look at my little man!"
cried Jimmie Dale.
"He has a red mouth.
Look at his funny cap!"



How the children laughed!
Then each one ate his snowman.

They ate his cap first.
They ate his two eyes.
They ate his little nose.
They ate his red mouth too.
They ate the ice cream all up.

Fred's Surprise

The party was almost over.
The children were ready to go.

Beverly went to get her coat.
She found a yellow dish
under her coat.
Nan found a green dish
under her coat.
Jimmie Dale found a red dish under his coat.

"Look at the little dishes!"
cried the children.
"Are they for us?"

"Yes," said Fred.
"I made them for you."

"There is something in my dish," said Nan.
"What is it?"

"It is a bulb," said Fred.
"A flower is hiding in it."

Taking Care of a Bulb

"Here I am, Mother,"
cried Beverly.
"The party is over.
We had some ice cream.
It looked like a little man.
It looked like a snowman.

I am carrying a surprise.
It is under my coat.
Fred made it for me.
It is yellow.
It has something in it.
Guess what it is."

Mother could not guess.
At last Beverly said,
"See, it is a dish.
There is a bulb in it.
There is a white flower hiding in the bulb."

"What a good surprise!"
said Mother.
"You must take good care of the bulb."

Beverly put some water into the dish.
She kept water in the dish
all the time.
She kept the dish away from the sun.
She kept it there a long time.

At last some leaves came.
Then Beverly put the dish into the sun.

Every day Beverly looked at the bulb.
Every day she put water
into the dish.
She waited and waited for the flower to come.

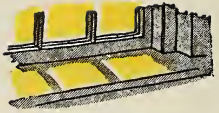
Then one morning she said,
"Mother, Mother! Come here!
Look at my bulb!
The white flower has come!
How beautiful it is!"

a white flower



in the sun

a dish

a bulb

some water

Point to the Right Answer

What was hiding in the bulb?

What did Fred put in each dish?

What did Fred make for Beverly?

What did Beverly put into the dish?

Where did she put the bulb after the leaves came?

The Wind

One day the wind said,
"Oo-oo! Oo-oo!
I want to have some fun.
I know how I can have fun.
Oo-oo! Oo-oo! Oo-oo!"

Away went the wind.
Away it went down the street.
There it found Sally Ann.

"Oo-oo! Oo-oo!" said the wind.
"I will push you around.
I will play a trick on you.
Oo-oo! Oo-oo! Oo-oo!"

Sally Ann heard the wind.
She heard the wind go "Oo-oo!"
She did not know what it said.

The wind pushed Sally Ann.
It pushed her around.
It pushed her down the street.
All at once it blew off her cap.

Away went the wind.
"Oo-oo! Oo-oo!" it laughed.
"I played a trick on you."

Away went the wind.
Away it went down the street.
There it found Fred.
Fred was playing in the yard with his kite.

"Oo-oo! Oo-oo!" said the wind.
"I will push you around.
I will play a trick on you.
Oo-oo! Oo-oo! Oo-oo!"

Fred heard the wind.
The wind was cold,
but he liked it.
It helped him with his kite.

The wind pushed Fred around.
It blew his kite up, up, up.

The wind blew and blew.
It blew harder and harder.
The kite went up, up, up.
All at once away went the string.
Away went the kite.
The kite flew over the houses.
It flew over the trees.

"Oo-oo!" laughed the wind.
"I played a trick on you, Fred."

cap

kite trees yard street

A Finding Game

Find the right ending.

The wind went down the _____.

It blew off Sally Ann's _____.

Fred was playing with his _____.

The kite flew over the _____.

Fred was playing in the _____.

A Surprise at School

Jack was going to school.
He had something in his arms.
It was big and hard to carry.
It had paper and string around it.

Can you guess what it was?

Jack came to the school.
The children saw something in his arms.
"Oh, Jack!" they cried.
"What have you?
What is in the paper?"

"Wait and see," said Jack.

Jack put down the surprise.
He took off the paper.
There was a big bowl.

There was water in the bowl.
There were green plants.
There was a little house too.

The house had a little door.
It had two little windows.

Something swam out of the door.
Something swam out
of the window.
They swam around in the bowl.

"Oh, look at the goldfish!"
cried the children.
"There are three goldfish!"

"Oh, Jack!" cried Sally Ann.
"One fish is black and yellow.
It swam into the house.
It swam in the window.
It swam out of the door."

Then a fish jumped.
Some water hit Jack.
It hit him on the nose.

How the children laughed!

The Goldfish

"Jack brought us the goldfish,"
said Miss Hill.
"What must we do for them?"

"We must feed the fish,"
said Beverly.
"What do fish eat?"

"Do they eat meat?"
asked Sally Ann.

"You must find out,"
said Miss Hill.

The next morning Beverly said,
"I know what to feed the fish.
They eat fish food.
I brought some to school."

Beverly went to her coat.
She got a paper.
In the paper was fish food.

"What funny food!" said Nan.
"It looks like paper."

"Jack may feed the fish,"
said Miss Hill.

Jack took a piece of the food.
He broke it into big pieces.

"Oh, no!" said Sally Ann.
"Do not give them big pieces.
Their mouths are very little."

Jack broke off a tiny piece of the fish food.
He put it into the bowl.

All of the fish saw the food.
All of them swam after it.
All of them jumped for it.
The black and yellow fish got the piece of food.
Then it swam away.

The children gave all the fish some food.
It was fun to see the fish eat the food.

"We must feed them every day,"
said Jack.
"We must feed them every day
at the same time."

"Yes," said Miss Hill.
"We must feed them every day
at the same time.
But that is not all.
Fish must have a clean bowl.
They must have fresh water too."

A Picture Game

Point to the right answer.

What swam out of the window?
What has green leaves?
What has a tail?
What eats fish food?
What has flowers?
What has a mouth?
What must have a clean bowl?

A Frolic

It was a cold, cold night.
Jack Frost was out.
He laughed, "Ho, ho! Ho, ho!"
He said,
"I like this cold night.
It is a night for a frolic.
It is a night for some fun.
Ho, ho! Ho, ho!"

Jack Frost took his paints.
Away he went.
He laughed, "Ho, ho!"

He slipped over the yards.
He painted the leaves all white.
The leaves went snap, snap.

He slipped over the yards.
He painted the plants all white.
The plants went snap, snap.

He slipped over the trees.
He painted the trees all white.
The trees went snap, snap.

He slipped over the houses.
He painted the roofs all white.
The roofs went snap, snap.

Jack Frost came to a house.
It was Jimmie Dale's house.

He slipped into the house.
He found Jimmie Dale.
Jimmie Dale was asleep.

"Ho, ho! Ho, ho!" he laughed.
"Now for some fun."

Jack Frost went to the window.
He painted fairy pictures on it.
He slipped over to Jimmie Dale.
He pinched Jimmie Dale's nose.
Then away he went.
"Ho, ho! What fun!"
he laughed.

Jack Frost came to a house.
It was Jane's house.
He slipped into the house.
He found Jane.
Jane was asleep.

"Ho, ho! Ho, ho!" he laughed.
"Now for a frolic!"

Jack Frost went to the window.
He painted fairy pictures on it.
He slipped over to Jane.
He pinched Jane's ears.
Then away he went.
"What a frolic!" he cried.

Away Jack Frost went.
Away he went over the trees.
Away he went over the houses.

All night long he painted beautiful fairy pictures.
All night long he laughed and frolicked.

Fairy Pictures

Morning came.
Mother called, "Jimmie Dale!
Wake up! Wake up!
Jack Frost was here last night.
See what he did to the window."

Jimmie Dale got up.
He went to the window.

There were fairy pictures on the window.
Jimmie Dale saw fairy trees.
He saw a fairy house.
In the yard he saw a little man.
He was a little snowman.
There were snowballs too.

"Oh, Mother!" cried Jimmie Dale.
"See the fairy trees.
See this fairy house.
Here is a little snowman.
He is a fairy snowman.
Here are the fairy snowballs.
And here is the little fairy."

When Jane waked up she saw something on her window.
She ran to the window.

Do you think she saw the same pictures that Jimmy Dale saw?

Jane saw a fairy hill.
There were trees on the hill.
There were fairy plants.
There were flowers too.
Under a flower was a brownie.

"Oh, Mother!" cried Jane.
"See the pictures on my window.
Here is a little brownie.
He is hiding under a flower.
And up here is a hill.
There are trees on the hill.
See the fairy plants too.
Oh, where are the pictures?
Where have they gone?"

Jane looked and looked.
She could not find the hill.
She could not find the trees.
The plants were gone.
The flowers were gone.
The brownie was gone too.

All Jane saw was some water running down the window.

A Baby Rabbit

Something was coming to school.
It was coming the next day.
It was a baby rabbit.

The children were busy making a house for the rabbit.
The house was almost ready.

The house had a roof.
It had a little door.
It had three windows.

The boys wanted to paint the house.
Jack brought some paint.
They painted the house white.

Now the boys were busy painting the roof.
They were painting it red.
It was a beautiful house.
All the children liked it.

Nan was busy too.
She was making something.
It was to go over the door of the rabbit's house.
This is what it said:

Baby Rabbit's House

The next day the baby rabbit came to school.
He was a white rabbit.

He had long ears.
He had a tiny tail.
He had a funny little nose.

The children named the rabbit.
They named him Funny-Nose.

"Let me feed the rabbit," said Sally Ann.
"I brought some fresh leaves.
They are fresh green leaves."

"Rabbits like to eat leaves," said Jimmie Dale.
"Let's give him some."

They gave him the leaves.
He ate them all up.

"I will get some fresh water for Funny-Nose," said Jane.
"I will get it in a clean dish."

All at once there was a noise at the door.
Then something said, "Mew!"

Jack went to the door.
In came Blackie.
Blackie liked to come to school.
She came almost every day.

When Blackie saw Funny-Nose how surprised she was.
She said, "Mew! Pst! Pst!"
Then she jumped up on the end of the table.

She hit the dish of red paint.
Over went the paint on Blackie.
There were red spots
on her head.
There were red spots
on her back.
Her feet were red too.

"Oh, Nan!" cried Jimmie Dale.
"Do not call your cat Blackie.
Call her Spottie, now."

Cat Rabbit Dog

Find the Right Picture

I eat green leaves.

I like milk.

I like to eat meat best.

I have long ears.

I like to bark.

I have a tiny tail.

I have a funny nose.

Feeding the Fish

One morning Beverly went to feed the fish.
She got the fish food.
She broke it into tiny pieces.
She took the little pieces to the fish bowl.

She gave a piece to the fish.
Then she saw something.

"Oh, look!" cried Beverly.
"What are the little things crawling in the bowl?"

"Run over to the fish bowl,"
said Miss Hill.
"See what Beverly has found."

The children stopped painting.
They ran to the fish bowl.
In the bowl they saw two tiny round things.

"Oh, what are they?"
cried the children.

"See who can find out what they are,"
said Miss Hill.

The children kept very still.
They looked and looked.

At last one little round thing moved a little.
A tiny head came out.
The head had two little horns.

Then the little round thing moved again.
It did not swim.
It crawled around.

The other little round thing
moved a little.
A tiny head came out.
This head had two little horns.

Then this other round thing
moved again.
It did not swim.
It crawled around.

"I know what they are.
They are snails," said Jack.
"See their little houses!
Snails carry their houses on their backs."

"What funny little things!"
said Beverly.
"Let us name the snails."

"All right," said Miss Hill.
"What can we name them?"

"Name one Tiny," said Nan.

"Name the other one Spot,"
said Fred.

Guessing Games

It has two eyes.
But it does not see.
It has a mouth.
But it does not eat.
Boys throw snowballs at it.
What do you think it is?

It likes to frolic.
It likes to have fun.
It likes to play tricks.
It likes to play tricks on you.
It says, "Oo-oo, Oo-oo."
What is it?

It has a head.
It has two horns.
It likes the water.
But it does not swim.
It crawls around.
It carries a little house on its back.
What is it?

I like to frolic
when you are asleep.
I paint beautiful fairy pictures on the windows.
I pinch your ears and nose.
Who am I?

I have a head.
I have two black eyes.
I have a little nose.
I have a laughing mouth.
I have two arms.
I have two feet.
Beverly's mother made me out of a stocking.
What do you think I am?

Fred made me.
He made me out of clay.
Fred painted me.
He put something in me.
What am I?

Vocabulary of "Friends"

The entire pre-primer vocabulary has been repeated in "Friends." A total of 203 new words are introduced in this primer, proper names being included as new words. Except for the addition of simple variants to the basal form, every form is counted as a new word. Every word has a minimum repetition of at least three. There are no more than three new words introduced on a given page. The page-by-page occurrence of the words is as follows:

9. - - - 10. Blackie head tail 11. - - - 12. - - -
13. did
14. called come 15. move
16. noise saw see 17. - - - 18. coming
19. hid still answer
20. sh
21. around kept very 22. up into arms
23. right
24. Brownie
25. shoes nuts best 26. coat pointed 27. bells when tinkle
28. game
29. went
30. almost
31. - - - 32. eat frightened 33. took how surprised 34. at again
35. Jimmie Dale's
King barks 36. threw stick carried 37. away after on 38. pst
laughed 39. ending 40. but down street
41. sniff out of 42. him
Miss Hill 43. does 44. throw now we 45. taking care wash 46. water meat bread 47. oh your 48. milk fish good 49. yes no 50. Beverly's could 51. may there 52. - - - 53. off were feet 54. crying cried bad 55. stopped asked will

Date Due
EDUC DE 28 '77

56. som whit stoc 57. got put 58. stri pen tha 59. eye nos mo 60. the kn 61. Fr pa fu 62. he ge re
63. gr
64. di cl th 65. p n h 66. v l e 67. a f 68.

fairy pinched
, Jane's ears
. - - -
. wake
. - - -
. think
. gone
. - - -
0. baby busy 1. boys
2. - - - 3. - - - 4. - - - 5. - - - 6. spots back 17. - - - 18. - - - 19. things crawling round 20. - - - 21. horns swim 122. other snails 123. - - - 124. - - -
125. - - - 126. - - - big snowman

83. blew once asleep

PE 1117 P412 PRIM-CANADIAN CHILDREN S OWN READERS/
/NEW ED --

39308810 CURR HIST

00000975421

PE 1117 P412 Prim.
Canadian children's own readers /

HISTORICAL COLLECTION

0213452P CURR

56. som
white stocking

57. got put

58. string pencils that

59. eyes nose mouth

60. them know

61. Fred's party fun

62. help get ready

63. green

64. dishes clay three

65. paint must hard

66. waited last each

67. came all first

68. let's big snowman snowballs hit

70. - - -

71. door their table

72. ice cream man

73. ate

74. over under

75. us bulb flower

76. some carrying

77. - - -

78. time sun long

79. every morning beautiful

80. - - -

81. wind oo-oo Sally Ann

82. push trick

83. blew once

85. cold

86. flew trees

87. - - -

88. paper

89. - - -

90. bowl plants windows

91. swam goldfish

92. - - -

93. brought feed

94. next food

95. piece broke

96. tiny gave

97. same clean fresh

98. - - -

99. night
Frost ho

100. slipped snap

101. roofs asleep

fairy pinched

103. Jane's ears

104. - - -

105. wake

106. - - -

107. think

108. gone

109. - - -

110. baby busy

111. boys

112. - - -

113. - - -

114. - - -

115. - - -

116. spots
back

117. - - -

118. - - -

119. things crawling round

120. - - -

121. horns
swim

122. other snails

123. - - -

124. - - -

125. - - -

126. - - -

PE 1117 P412 PRIM-
CANADIAN CHILDREN S OWN READERS/
/NEW ED --

39308810 CURR HIST

000004975421

PE 1117 P412 Prim.
Canadian children's own readers /

HISTORICAL COLLECTION

0213452P CURR

doll

head

leaves house

Father

Mother

jump

cap

shoe

bells

children

throw cat dog stocking

pencil

table

ice cream

flower

man tree

gold fish rabbit

swim